

The Light

Dine out, regal, gowns glow sequin
Eyes Wandering, will we belong

Signs of Freedom, turn up, neon
Free to be weird, to be gone

In the sideways dream, attempting to be real
In the darkness riding lightning just to feel

You're never going to see the light (x2)

Fried on green gum, safe to be numb
Young, chasing night anthems

Sirens, we flaunt,
We've just begun, just begun

In the sideways dream, attempting to be real
In the darkness riding lightning just to feel

You're never going to see the light (x2)

You're never going to see the light (x4?)
