

Stone by Stone

I won't stop trying now, and...
I can't stop lying now
Because I'm sacred in my vows to see this through

Let me hold you swing you round
Pack our bags and leave this town
Because I'm scared of missing out or missing you

Stone by Stone were tumbling
Inch by Inch it's humbling
Fooled by the world untangling, you're leaving me whole again

Grace has found me through this friend, in her lips and scent I swim
Smile lines in faded light, I see again
In this world I seek to find, all the ways to lose my mind,
Now I'm home, I'm feeling fine, we'll see again.

Stone by Stone were tumbling
Inch by Inch its humbling
Fooled by the world untangling, your leaving me whole again

I know I'm the reason, we can't see the truth
I know I'm the reason, we can't see the truth

I won't stop trying now, and...
I can't stop lying now
Because I'm sacred in my vows to see this through
