

Steady and Slow

Typing fiercely since the morning light and probably dancing in the streets tonight Cause I go, yeah I go.

Faster, pressures from myself weigh in.
Work hard, play, they say you play to win
I don't know, still I go.

Slowdown for me it may save sanity
But these are prime days, pleads your urgency
Oh I can't wait, rush before it's too late
Left alone out there still at home with fear

The grass is greener when it's seen the light
Then starts to brown when it gets too bright
Yes I know, as I go

Mark me wild or a cause you've lost
But all this moving is making wonderful thoughts
Cause I know, Cause I love.

When fixity's gone and I'm feeling small
I question if I can really do it all
Feeling low, Still I go

Culturally, to get ahead today
Though I'm living for a different way
Toe to toe, fight to know

Slowdown for me it may save sanity
But these are prime days, pleads your urgency
Oh I can't wait, rush before it's too late

Slowdown for me it may save sanity
But these are prime days, pleads your urgency
Oh I can't wait, rush before it's too late
Left alone out there still at home with fear

A brighter call, I'm not sure,
I might fall, it could hurt out there, a single future near How can I stop right now, when I've bet on it all out there, won't acknowledge fear
